MEMORANDUM FOR: DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

ATTN: DIRECTOR OF TRAINING

SUBJECT: Preparation of Lectures for the Intelligence Collection
Staff Officer Course

1. The Army Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence has directed that an Intelligence Collection Staff Officer Course of 10 weeks in duration be initiated at the US Army Intelligence Center, Fort Holabird, Md. to commence on 26 September 1960. Approximately 20 Army officers will attend the first course. The purpose of the course is to train officer personnel to plan and direct activities concerning the collection and reporting of information for the production of intelligence to fulfill Army requirements or requirements for which Army is assigned collection responsibility. The course will be taught at the TOP SECRET level.

2. Of the 350 hours of instruction, 44 hours are devoted to Strategic Intelligence. The Strategic Intelligence subjects are being given by lecturers furnished by the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence (OACSI) and certain guest lecturers from other intelligence agencies.

3. The Strategic Intelligence subjects listed in Inclosure 1, are in general, similar in scope to those presented at the Strategic Intelligence School by lecturers from the Central Intelligence Agency. It is requested that the Central Intelligence Agency furnish guest lecturers to present the subjects listed in Inclosure 1.

4. Lt. Colonel Wm. D. Neale, Collection Division, OACSI, Pentagon Room 2E475, telephone, OX 54068/55056 is the OACSI Contact Officer for this course.
